College is a time of self-discovery, crawling out of the cocoon and flying free.

Cal Lu is as diverse as the colors of the rainbow, or the notes on a keyboard, or the shapes on a kaleidoscope.

Running in the wind, letting it take you where it guides, where it flies,

This is diversity in action.

We have all crawled
out of our cocoon,
or are in the process
of crawling out.
Bit by bit
we discover new and diverse characteristics about ourselves.

We each have wings to fly, and each day brings us more opportunities to test those wings.

How beautiful to see the diversity of our flight patterns.

Sometimes we fly together. We fly through time and space and reach a single reality. We work together and play together.

But other times we stretch out for our separate realities, rejoicing in aloneness with nature and God.

When alone with nature,
and with God,
we are free to explore ourselves.

The diversity inside
oneself is astounding,
and produces greatness.

We grab one characteristic that we favor most,
and test it on our wings.

And after each test
we grow stronger,
and better at our talents.

That is when we share
this diversity with others.
We rejoice in our diversity, glad that there is something which we as individuals can be proud of.

Such sharing of diversity is a wonderful thing.

Come share with us as we take you on a journey through time and space, a journey that you will never forget; a journey that can be described only one way:

Diversity in action.

STUDENT LIFE

Sweet is revenge, especially to women.

The mirth and fun grew fast and furious.

"O happiness, our beings end and aim."

"The last and greatest art - the art to blot."

"Without music, life would be a mistake."

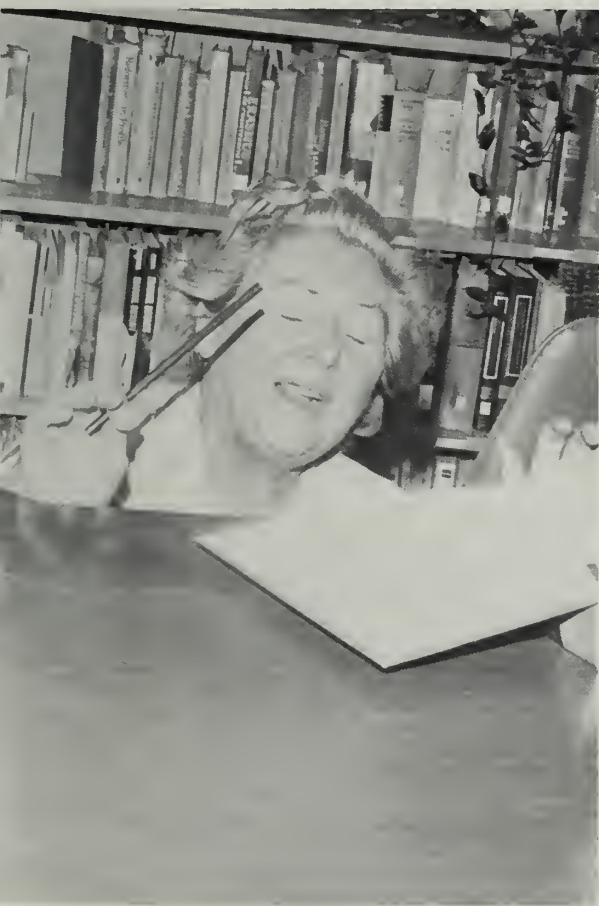

We, the undersigned...

Dixieland Jazz came to CLC on September 29 when the Preservation Hall Jazz Band appeared in the gym. Feet stomping students paraded around the audience as the band received a rousing ovation.

"We are the music-makers,
 And we are the dreamers of dreams . . .
 World losers and world
 forsakers,
 On whom the pale moons
 gleam;
 Yet we are the movers and shakers
 Of the world forever, it seems.
 One man with a dream, at pleasure,
 Shall go forth and conquer a crown;
 And three with a new songs
 measure
 Can trample an empire down."

The party's over, it's time to call it a day...

Don't you love my body?

Sharp Show

To the casual observer, these students may seem to be doing strange and bizarre things, but those who attended the Sharp Show know that they are. Actually, they're all hypnotised.

Who wants gum?

And I want a dolly, and a horsey, and a...

The bear was THIS big!

Now, everyone pat the nice lion on the head...

Isn't friendship wonderful?

Antigone exults after defying Creon and burying her brother.

Antigone

The CLC Drama Department began the entertainment season with an adaptation of the ancient Greek play "Antigone". Directed by Gregg Zimmerman, it ran from Thursday, October 14 through Sunday, October 17.

Cast by Zimmerman, the tragedy featured Liz Hazel in the lead role; Rob Koon as Creon, the king; Gunhild Allen as the Chorus; Dan Froelig as Haemon; Kathy Lenhardt as Ismene, Antigone's sister; Liz Carson as the old nurse; Dave Dill, Dave Streetz, and Barry Disselhorst as guards; Maia Siewertsen as the messenger, Sara Lineberger as Creon's page, and Jeri Gray as Euridice, the queen.

the tragic sequel to Creon's edict.

"Have you been good this year?"

"After the coffee things ain't so bad."

"Women wear the breeches."

"Egregiously an ass."

"The game is up."

Homecoming princesses Carol S. Lobitz, junior; Renae Ahlness, sophomore; and Naomi Roufs, freshman.

Pathways

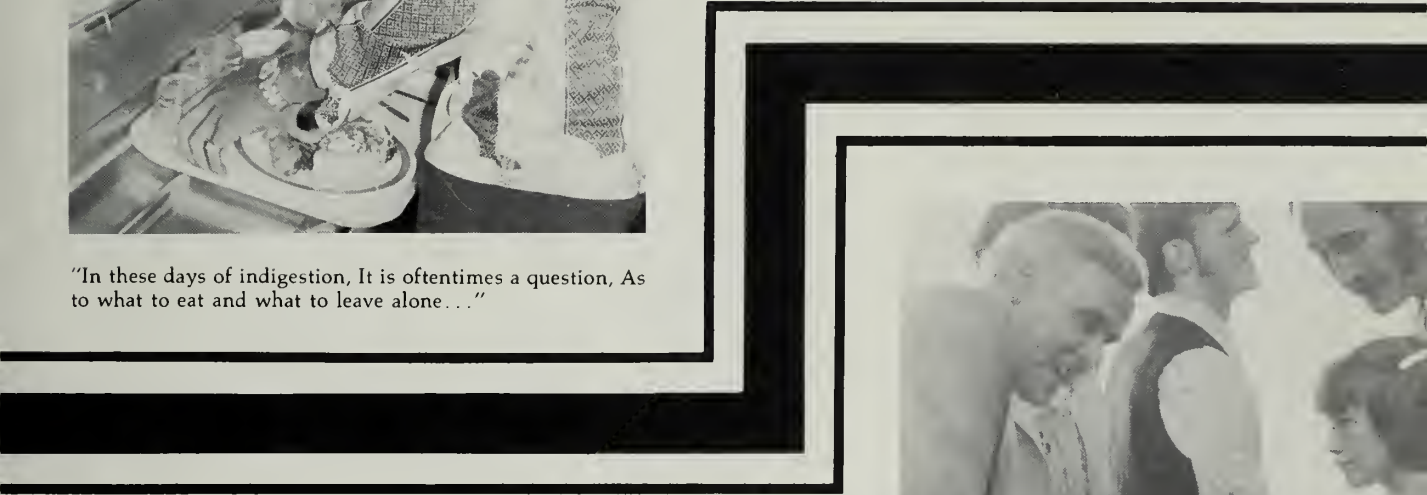

Senior princesses Dianne Chamness, Nancy Cotton and Queen Debi Davis.

"In these days of indigestion, It is oftentimes a question, As to what to eat and what to leave alone..."

"...Good men eat and drink that they may live."

"And he who gives a child a treat, Makes joy-bells ring in Heaven's street..."

"Little friends may prove great friends."

Mel Blanc
(Bugs Bunny and Friends)

"The smile that won't come off."

"Where are the snows of yester-year?"

"Music is Love in search of a word."

"I love to think her like a blessed candle Burning through life's long night..."

"I hear American singing, the varied carols I hear."

"I do desire we may be better strangers."

"Men are but children of a larger growth."

"A sea of upturned faces."

"As round as apple was his face."

"Away in a manger..."

"Farther than the arrow, higher than wings, fly poet's songs and prophet's word."

"Make the coming hour o'erflow with joy."

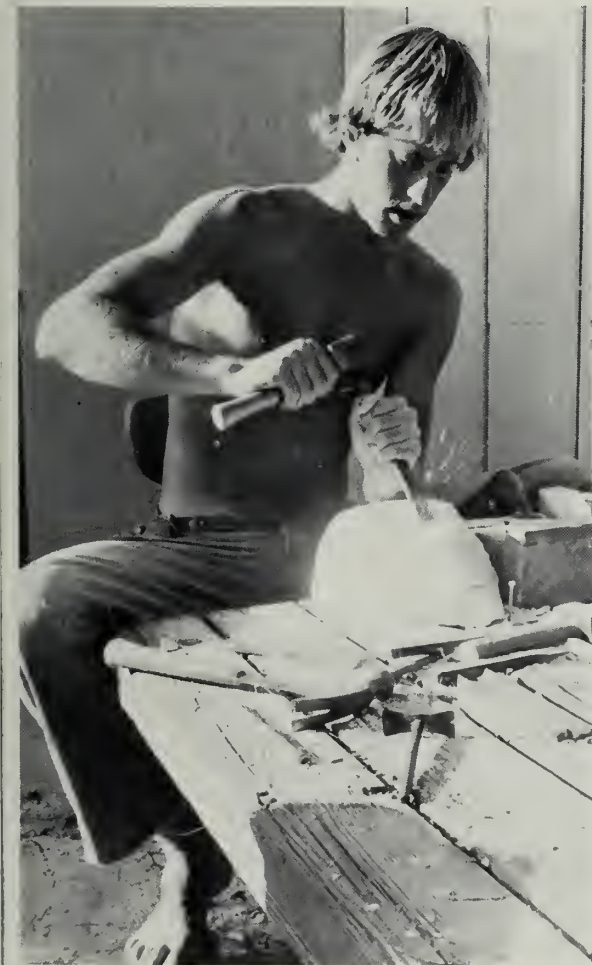

"Every joy is gain, and gain is gain, however small."

"If the world's a vale of tears, smile, till rainbows span it."

"Thoughts of the sweetest, saddest things."

"Work thou for pleasure - paint, or sing, or carve the thing thou lovest, though the body starve..."

"I have been in such a pickle since I saw you last."

"Lord, what fools these mortals be!"

"I don't EVEN believe it!"

"Got this shot, Sara?"

"Yeah, Tom, I got it. Now will you get out of the way?"

"O brave new world, That has such people in't!"

The Tempest

On December 9-11, the Drama department performed Shakespeare's The Tempest, a fantasy of spirits, villains, and lovers.

"Upon your heads - is nothing but heart sorrow..."

"I would with such perfection govern, sir..."

"Thou poisonous slave, got by the devil himself, Upon thy wicked dam, come forth!"

"Gorky, I wish you would stop liking pretty girls."

The Cave Dwellers

"Well, I love Gorky, but does Gorky love me?"

The Barn is the home of the famous sophomore sundae, and a host of fun activities.

"Turn over a new leaf."

"On with the dance, let joy be unconfined."

"...And the merry love to dance."

Do the hustle.

"If music be the food of love - play on."

Twelfth Night

While on its nine month tour, the National Shakespeare Company was invited to come to CLC where the troupe gave an excellent performance of Twelfth Night. Replete with drunken buffoons, love sick lords and ladies, and delightful pranks, this comedy offered something for everyone.

VIOLA: "'Tis beauty truly blent, whose red and white Nature's own sweet and cunning hand laid on: Lady, you are the cruellest she alive, If you will lead these graces to the grave And leave the world no copy."

OLIVIA: "O, sir, I will not be so hard-hearted, I will give out divers schedules of my beauty; it shall be inventoried, and every particle and utensil labelled to my will: as, item, two lips, indifferent red; item, two grey eyes, with lids to them; item, one neck, one chin, and so forth."

"...And some have greatness thrust upon them."

"...She did commend my yellow stockings of late,..."

"If that the injuries be justly weigh'd That have on both sides pass'd."

"Pray God defend me! A little thing would make me tell them how much I lack of a man."

"Her eyes are homes of silent prayer."

April Manzel, senior Education major, looks like Spring herself.

Claire Mamakos and Chuck Conner, both seniors, demonstrate the fun of public display of affection.

"After the verb 'To Love', 'To Help' is the most beautiful verb in the world."

Communication Arts major, Mark Hall, shows communication skills.

"To hold, as 'twere, the mirror up to nature."

Lee Fugal blows his melodica while playing a piano duet.

"The hat is the ultimum moriens of respectability."

The smile that won't come off.

"I had rather have a fool to make me merry than experience to make me sad."

"...a smile from her bright eyes..."

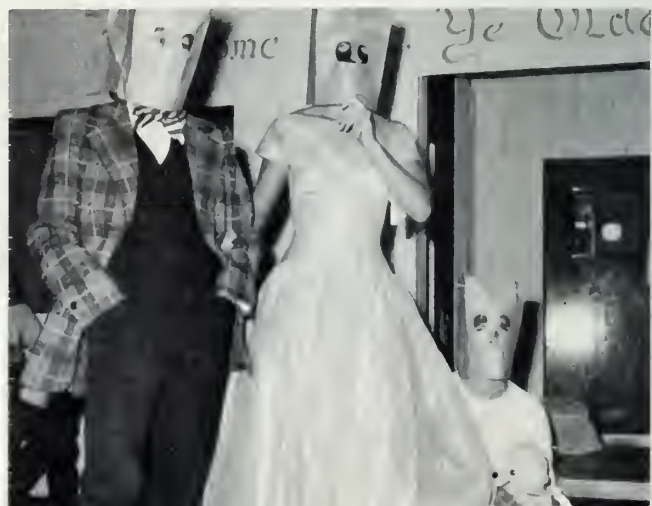

"Getting to know you..."

"Getting to like you..."

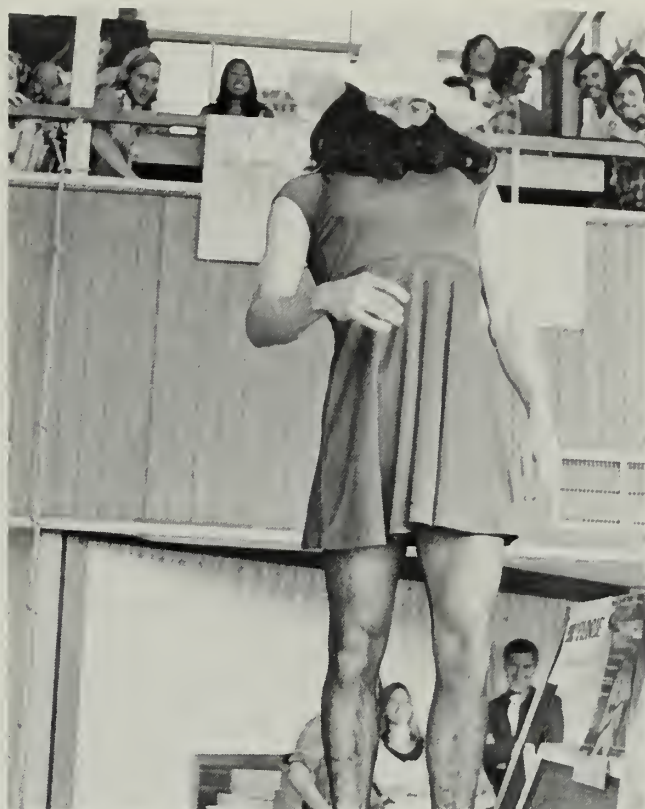

"...getting to hope you like me."

Ape-man Nielsen leaps for love.

But beauty's self she is.

Circus Maximus

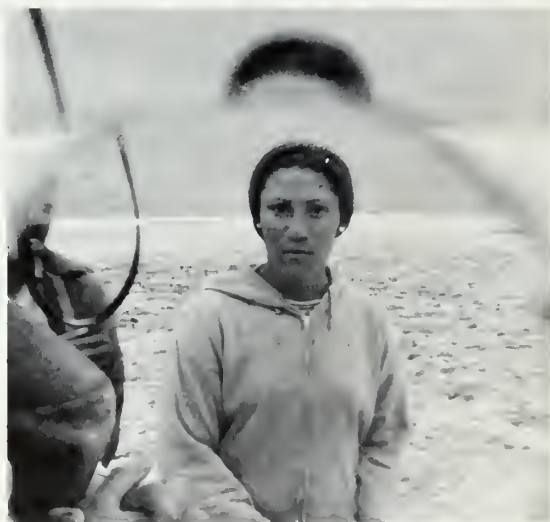

Upperclassmen will remember the Circus

Maximus of Spring '76. Originated by an imaginative group of Secret Sisters, the event featured a motley array of brawny beauties and savage beasts.

Vivian Roum, senior, one of the seldom seen commuters.

"Silence more musical than any song."

CHEERLEADERS

"We are proud of you!" Without a doubt this was the chant of the student body talking about this year's cheerleaders. By their hours of hard work which they put in, they made the entire campus community very proud.

Ed (or: writer, photographer, designer, creator, instigator, and resident liker of this whole book)

I hereby and forever acknowledge the help of many talented people:

1) the photographers, among whom are: the guy in the Upper Left hand corner, Jerry Lenander, Mark Hall, and Dave Swarthout. These are only a few.

2) The people pictured on these two pages, and Lori Treloar and Laurie German, who unfortunately are Not Pictured.

And of course, to the students of California Lutheran College, who gave me the money and said, "It better be a good yearbook.", I hope you like it.

This year the yearbook has undergone a few changes, one being the title of it. The former name, Campanile, means bell tower, and thus didn't seem appropriate for CLC, we have no bell tower.

The new name is Kairos, as evidenced by the cover. This name is Greek and means the right time, the best time, or a good time. This we feel is greatly present on the CLC campus. It is most often used when describing the life of Jesus on earth, chronos (time in measure) was interrupted by Kairos (time unmeasured) by Jesus' appearance on earth.

In our life's chronos, CLC is our Kairos in that it was the right time, the best time, a good time.
